

FRIDAY, MARCH 8

LON ROGERS, Editor.
Telephone—Business Office, 22.
Published Friday by the Hartford Pub. Co., incorporated
Entered at Hartford postoffice as second-class mail matter

X

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For Representative,
ALVIN B. BENNETT.
For County Judge,
FOR ROGERS.
For County Clerk,
B. S. HAGLAND.
For County Attorney,
J. L. HEAVIN.
For Sheriff,
CAL F. KEOWN.
For School Superintendent,
JAMES B. WHELAN.
For Jailor,
THOMAS B. BLACK.
For Assessor,
FRANK LOWE.
For Register,
JOHN H. WOOD.
For Coroner,
BEN L. DAVIS.

SENATOR Wm. Lindsay has gone to New York to practice law.

The Democratic ticket, nominated Monday, was selected because of its ability to raise a large corruption fund.

The inauguration of McKinley and Roosevelt Monday was attended with more pomp and military display than any former occasion of like importance. Washington was clothed like a bride.

We are sanguine that "A. G. Benton" is heart-sick of his display of ignorance and awkwardness before the public, though he might make some "signs," if he couldn't speak.

The Democratic ticket is headed by a Populist and down further in the list contains a very able sound money man. We failed to learn whether any other denomination is represented or not. If not, it is a wonder.

Our contemporary, "Mr. A. G. Benton," says that in his opinion, young Beckham made a mistake in pardoning Ed Alvey, the Louisville gambler. This is certainly a surprise to the citizens of this county to know that this old hard-hearted sinner has repented and is putting his stamp of disapproval on crimes so infinitely insignificant compared with the stealing of the governorship of a state, against which he never raised his angelic voice, but on the other hand, accepted and approved it all, in the columns of his weekliug, and instead of calling the maddened dogs out, said: "Sick um, ug!"

The treatment of Mr. Cass Rowan, a life-long Democrat true as steel, last Monday at the hands of the leaders of his party, was most charitable indeed. Mr. Rowan's Democracy is unquestioned, it does not have to be placated, but is accepted on the market of the political world as being worth one hundred cents to the dollar. He has labored in his party most of his life, believing, doubtless, that the principles of the Democratic party, properly administered, would bring in the best interest of the American people. He is a gentleman of high standing, a man of influence, a farmer of means, a man loved by his neighbors, and universally respected, but when he trusts his fortunes in the balance with those of a political heretic, he and the fate of those fortunes entrusted to the political trickster, they count for naught.

WHAT THEY ENDORSE.

The second clause of the Ohio county Democratic platform reads more like a miracle than a historic declaration of a political organization, upon which that organization proposes to base its claims for the endorsement of the people in the coming contest. It reads thus:

"We endorse the wise conservation and education of the people's interests that have characterized the present administration of Governor Beckham and those with him who are associated with the administration of the State affairs."

We desire to ask one question here, which any member of the Democratic party may answer or its organ at this place: What has Mr. Beckham done that was wise, conservative and adhered to the people's interests? It is a part of history that as soon as Beckham was in charge of State affairs he had $100,000 appropriated to "hang Taylor and damn the Republican party," was this wise, conservative or to the people's interest? It is also history that before he had quietly settled in the Governor's chair, he had another $100,000 of the tax-payer's money appropriated for the purpose of raising and equipping a standing army. For what purpose? Was it in time of war? Was Kentucky going on a conquest? $200,000, conservative—what degree? Wise, you say! Whose wisdom—lie to the people's interest—how and where? It is also recorded in Kentucky's history that Beckham called an extra session of the legislature, to amend the election law, which set for 56 days at an enormous expense to the State, with no other object than to amend or revise the laws governing elections. Every bill that bore the resemblance of fairness was set down by Beckham's wing of that body. Fifty-six days were spent, when ten would have answered quite as well, had he wanted a fair election law. After all, the law passed was most as partisan as the Goebel law. Does this show conservatism, wisdom and to the people's interest? It was but yesterday, as I were, that Slusher, the bruiser, Alvey and Miles, the gamblers, were all pardoned in order that the two latter might furnish competition in gambling in the city of Louisville, as Beckham said in his endorsement.

Dear—dear readers, law-abiding, liberty-loving, God-fearing citizens, where is the wisdom, the conservatism, the people's interest, in such a course? All these things the Democratic platform endorses, and upon this declaration they go to the people for approval. The people of Ohio county have repudiated this office-seeking band of politicians more than once, and yet they come endorsing all the crimes they have previously committed and in addition the most humiliating and demoralizing practices of vice, with which the human race is afflicted. The case is in your hands—what will you do?

BECKHAM AND THE GAMBLERS.

Last week we published the most remarkable document that was ever issued by an executive official. It purported to set forth reasons why a certain man—a king of gamblers—should not be deprived of his liberties as an American, by confinement in a State penitentiary for a period of two years. The court and the prosecuting attorney are made the objects of a most personal, heated and libelous assault, as officials, even charging the attorney with having been connected with "honest election" movement, which should commend a man to any intelligent community, while an admitted criminal, a professional gambler, a convicted destroyer of men, is made the theme for his song of laudation and praise.

This week we publish the response of Judge Barker and the attorney, Mr. Kinkade, to Mr. Beckham's vicious attack, which we unhesitatingly commended to every Kentuckian. Judge Barker is a fearless Democrat, as he states to the grand jury, has been loyal and true to the principles of his party. He cites young Beckham to the fact that he fled in terror from Frankfort to Louisville with his wing of the legislature and tell for strafe at the door of his court for protection, and yet, when discrimination is made between this same Judge and a gambler, notorious in reputation and odious in character, the latter is chosen. In his answer to Beckham, Judge Barker says his utterances are "untrue in word and spirit." Which shall the people believe? Will they uphold him, who has fearlessly and impartially administered justice to a self-admitted criminal, or will they side with a man that demands "competition" in crime and houses of vice?

There can be no politics in this case. They are all Democrats of the Goebel dynasty—the Governor, the court and the criminal—all belong to the same political school. They read the same political Bible, worship in the same temple, vowing allegiance to the same political deity. Beckham says: "This is the most bare-faced and inexcusable case of judicial and political persecution that ever came before my notice." In response to this pretense, Judge Barker retorts: "It is untrue in word and spirit." Do Democrats persecute each other in this manner? But this is the only logical conclusion, in view of the last two years history of the office "getters" at Frankfort. Mr. Beckham declares himself in favor of competition in gambling—thinks monopoly should not be permitted to exist in this business, and expressed himself indignantly when one of these executive favorites is barred from business by the verdict of twelve honest jurors. Twelve honest jurors—yes indeed!

We recall that in his speech at Hartford last fall, Mr. Beckham vowed that he would not pardon any man convicted by a jury of twelve honest jurors. Oh, consistency, thou art a jewel!

It is understood that the hirings of this man Alvey who were indicted, were promised immunity if they would turn State's evidence and tell all they knew about the case. This, it true, is perfectly legitimate and honorable, as every lawyer of standing knows, but Mr. Beckham takes issue on this point, when his friends—the gamblers—are on trial, speaking on this point he says:

"This is the most bare-faced and inexcusable case of judicial and political persecution that ever came before my notice. It is a bold and shameful conspiracy this man Alvey has been selected as the hapless victim."

the assassination of Senator Goebel, if they would turn State's evidence and "hang Taylor and damn the Republican party," to quote one of the attorneys for the Commonwealth. Was this a corrupt bargain in the one case, and an act inspired from on high in the other? This bit of history is yet firmly riveted in the minds of the people. In assigning his reasons for granting this pardon, Beckham begins as follows:

"And why tell that indictment against others have been disclosed under a corrupt bargain that they have given immunity. If they would give evidence against this man and one man alone."

And concludes as follows:

"I therefore grant this pardon to Alvey upon the assurance from him that he will not again violate the law."

Gentle reader, will you carefully note the first clause and compare it with the latter? In the first, Beckham declares that Alvey has been made the object of a bare-faced and corrupt bargain to persecute this man Alvey. In the latter, he admits that Alvey is a criminal. Now, who ever heard of a guilty man being persecuted, but Beckham?

'96-'99-'99-1901'?

The assertion that politics makes queer bedfellows, is unquestionably true. At times in the career of an office-seeking politician, it appears that it is necessary for him to be a poly-sided sort of a fellow, congenial, elastic and pliable. A card was circulated in Hartford last Monday, which, to thinking men, was very amusing and clearly demonstrated the fact that some men must be tried, before it is possible to conjecture what they will do in the event of political emergency. The recent Democratic convention made it necessary for Judge Jas. P. Miller to come square out and declare himself a Democrat, which previously he has denied, before he could get the nomination for County Judge on that ticket. About two weeks ago Judge Miller published an article in "A. G. Benton's" journal, setting forth his position politically, which was not at all satisfactory with many Democrats, because of its peculiar wording. Hence, the "clique" that was steering his cause, concluded that it was more than important that he should make his Democratic affiliations more acceptable to the party by emphasizing the fact and swearing his allegiance to and resting his fortunes with the destiny of that organization. Ever ready to meet a political necessity, as he has been heretofore, he rose to meet this occasion and invoked the powers that be to aid him in vowing his allegiance to the Democratic party. In answer to his earnest petition, the merciful fates permitted this card to be written on his political diary:

A CARD.

To THE VOTERS OF THIS COUNTY:—I have heretofore, in response to certain friends of mine, made what I conceive to be a clear and explicit statement of my political position. Last there should be any misapprehension, however, in the mind of any man on this subject. I will add to what I have already stated that since the adoption of the platform by the Democratic National Convention in 1896, and the reaffirmation of this platform by the Democratic party in Kentucky, I HAVE BEEN AND AM NOW A DEMOCRAT. As I understand it, the thing necessary to constitute party affiliation in this country are first, allegiance to party platform, and second support of party nominees.

I had supposed that my political position as here defined, was clearly understood by my friends in this county, and I trust there can be no longer any room for misapprehension on this subject.

I nominated for County Judge by the Democratic convention which meets in Hartford next Monday, I expect to be nominated as a Democrat, and shall not the nomination as a Democrat. I shall submit to the action of that convention and cheerfully support its nominees, whoever they may be, on the Democratic platform which that convention will adopt. Very respectfully,
March 1, 1901.
J. P. MILLER.

Judge Miller was at one time a most ardent supporter of the principles of the Republican party, and a candidate for office before that party. In answer to some sort of prayer, he met with a change of heart, politically speaking, and became a Populist. Thus he repudiated all his former teachings and thought he, "I am surely right," laboring in this party for a short time—as a private and a candidate—he came to the conclusion that something must be wrong some where; later were yet ungrateful and he was without official honor—that he was laboring under a delusion. Hoping over the matter further, as we hope, he felt that he had met with another change of heart, which he construed to spell Democracy. Taking his word for it in this message placarded, above quoted, this last change took place in the year of our Lord 1896. From some unknown cause, the experience of this change of '96 was withheld from the public until recently. Formerly he was much irritated when accused of being a Democrat, and on some occasions would express himself as being very indignant. On one occasion he went so far as to brand the accusation as a falsehood. We call to mind that in '99 he was killed by the chairman of the Democratic campaign committee, to speak at McHenry on the 8th of November in the interest of the Democratic ticket, with Ben Ringo, a most vicious and partisan Democrat. We also remember that we told our readers of this appointment in this manner: "Judge Jas. P. Miller has again met with a political regeneration. This time King Goebel is his Savior. Judge Miller is an honorable man, but he links his fortune with that of a murderer, a robber, a thief, and a professional liar. Don't politics make queer bed fellows?" And in answering this accusation, as we will term it, for convenience, he declared that "the statements contained in it were falsehoods, and the author knew it when he wrote it." The author of that statement, gentle reader, is still your humble servant. We were sincere in what we said then, not wishing to misrepresent any man, but to record facts as we saw them. We do not desire to misrepresent anybody, now, as we quote from the Judge's official mouthpiece—the Herald—"Benton's journal," as follows:

"Judge Miller made a speech at McHenry Monday night, as he had agreed to do in behalf of Mr. Stewart's candidacy for the legislature. Mr. Rogers, of the Republican, went to McHenry to hear what he had to say, and then when he had not gone."

"Judge Miller said in opening his speech, after reading the above article, that the statements it contained were falsehoods and known to be false by the author when he wrote them. HE THEN STATED THAT HE WAS A REPUBLICAN AND NO ONE HAD ASKED HIM TO VOTE OR SPEAK FOR MR. JOHNSON OR HIS TICKET."

Now Judge, it is not our purpose to treat you unkindly, but our earnest desire is to deal fairly and manly with you, to excuse us for being inquisitive, but since you charged us with having told a falsehood on you in '99, which we accepted, not knowing your heart, we are very anxious to know and we insist that you explain how you were a Democrat in '96, a Populist in '99 and a Democrat again in 1901, without meeting a change somewhere along the line? Are the statements, which you placarded Monday, falsehoods spoken only to obtain a nomination over a man, who attended nothing but a Democratic school and knew no other political god other than Democracy's, or were your statements at McHenry falsehoods? We have tried most zealously indeed, to harmonize these years of yours and this language, but for our life, we have hopelessly failed. Will you answer these queries, by asserting to your Democratic constituency, that the Populist party and the Democratic party are one and the same? How dare you? Or will you charge the report of the Herald as an outrage and a falsehood? Oh! don't do that, our other self drank these utterances from your lips, and through as being very indignant. On one occasion he went so far as to brand the accusation as a falsehood. We call to mind that in '99 he was killed by the chairman of the Democratic campaign committee, to speak at McHenry on the 8th of November in the interest of the Democratic ticket, with Ben Ringo, a most vicious and partisan Democrat. We also remember that we told our readers of this appointment in this manner: "Judge Jas. P. Miller has again met with a political regeneration. This time King Goebel is his Savior. Judge Miller is an honorable man, but he links his fortune with that of a murderer, a robber, a thief, and a professional liar. Don't politics make queer bed fellows?" And in answering this accusation, as we will term it, for convenience, he declared that "the statements contained in it were falsehoods, and the author knew it when he wrote it." The author of that statement, gentle reader, is still your humble servant. We were sincere in what we said then, not wishing to misrepresent any man, but to record facts as we saw them. We do not desire to misrepresent anybody, now, as we quote from the Judge's official mouthpiece—the Herald—"Benton's journal," as follows:

"Judge Miller made a speech at McHenry Monday night, as he had agreed to do in behalf of Mr. Stewart's candidacy for the legislature. Mr. Rogers, of the Republican, went to McHenry to hear what he had to say, and then when he had not gone."

"Judge Miller said in opening his speech, after reading the above article, that the statements it contained were falsehoods and known to be false by the author when he wrote them. HE THEN STATED THAT HE WAS A REPUBLICAN AND NO ONE HAD ASKED HIM TO VOTE OR SPEAK FOR MR. JOHNSON OR HIS TICKET."

Now Judge, it is not our purpose to treat you unkindly, but our earnest desire is to deal fairly and manly with you, to excuse us for being inquisitive, but since you charged us with having told a falsehood on you in '99, which we accepted, not knowing your heart, we are very anxious to know and we insist that you explain how you were a Democrat in '96, a Populist in '99 and a Democrat again in 1901, without meeting a change somewhere along the line? Are the statements, which you placarded Monday, falsehoods spoken only to obtain a nomination over a man, who attended nothing but a Democratic school and knew no other political god other than Democracy's, or were your statements at McHenry falsehoods? We have tried most zealously indeed, to harmonize these years of yours and this language, but for our life, we have hopelessly failed. Will you answer these queries, by asserting to your Democratic constituency, that the Populist party and the Democratic party are one and the same? How dare you? Or will you charge the report of the Herald as an outrage and a falsehood? Oh! don't do that, our other self drank these utterances from your lips, and through as being very indignant. On one occasion he went so far as to brand the accusation as a falsehood. We call to mind that in '99 he was killed by the chairman of the Democratic campaign committee, to speak at McHenry on the 8th of November in the interest of the Democratic ticket, with Ben Ringo, a most vicious and partisan Democrat. We also remember that we told our readers of this appointment in this manner: "Judge Jas. P. Miller has again met with a political regeneration. This time King Goebel is his Savior. Judge Miller is an honorable man, but he links his fortune with that of a murderer, a robber, a thief, and a professional liar. Don't politics make queer bed fellows?" And in answering this accusation, as we will term it, for convenience, he declared that "the statements contained in it were falsehoods, and the author knew it when he wrote it." The author of that statement, gentle reader, is still your humble servant. We were sincere in what we said then, not wishing to misrepresent any man, but to record facts as we saw them. We do not desire to misrepresent anybody, now, as we quote from the Judge's official mouthpiece—the Herald—"Benton's journal," as follows:

the instrumentality of a pencil, booked them against you. If we prevailed, falsified and misrepresented in '99, who falsified in 1901, as to the political atmosphere you breathe?

CENTERTOWN, KY.

Rev. Shogart failed to preach here last Sunday and Rev. E. V. Philippi filled his stead.

Miss Mattie Robertson, of Rockport Ky., is visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Mr. Tom Benton has returned to his railroad position.

Mr. B. E. Ross has resigned his position as clerk with the Central Coal & Iron Co., of Echols, and is with us for a short time.

Miss Edna Bockett and Mr. Earl Davis are confined to their rooms on account of sickness.

Dr. G. F. Chapman has gone West to visit relatives and friends.

Atty's Heavin, Smith and Sander, of Hartford, were here last week on business.

Prof. G. T. Tinsley has moved to our town and we gladly welcome him to our circle.

Mr. S. M. James and Prof. H. H. Davis went to Cromwell last week on business.

Mr. E. H. James, of Cromwell, passed through our town last week to visit his daughter, Miss Evely, of Point Pleasant, who is very sick.

How Is This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. Cheney & Co., Props, Toledo, Ohio.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

West & Traux, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
Walding, Kinnear & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price, 75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Testimonials free.

The Dog That Liked Taffy.

A man had a dog that was fond of candy. It was the daily custom of the master, on coming home from business to toss a piece of taffy into the dog's open mouth. After devouring it the dog would manifest his delight and appreciation by much wagging and wagging. One day, to convince himself that the dog's affection were sincere, the master tossed a bit of Indian turnip into his mouth, instead of candy. After eating it the dog howled with pain, and would never again approach his master without growling. One bitter word kills the affect of much taffy.

In Memory

Of Rattle Sapp, wife of Green Sapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ford who died December 12, 1900, after a short illness. She leaves a devoted husband and four loving little children and a host of friends to mourn her loss. Grieve not dear father, your daughter has gone to enjoy the home prepared for loved ones. Cheer up dear mother, when your troubles or earth are over, you will meet your daughter on the golden shore. Grieve not dear sisters, dear Rattle has flown away—away to her heavenly home; just think of the promise God has given; may we all be prepared to meet her in heaven. Dear brother may you live so as to meet sister Rattle on the golden street and when Christ calls his children home, may you all be there to sing around the throne. Dear sister Rattle, a few moments of suffering was given when God released her from her pain and called her home to heaven there to live and ever be enjoying the realities of eternity. Dearest Sister, thou hast left us and thy loss we deeply feel, but thy God who has bereft us has alone our sorrows can heal.

A SISTER

The result of an over-indulgence in food or drink are promptly rectified, without pain or discomfort, by taking a few doses of Herbine. Price 50 cents. J. H. Williams, m.

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of
J. H. Williams, m.

On account of General Missionary Conference M. E. Church, South, at New Orleans, La., April 24, 10 30, tickets will be sold at rate of one fare for the round trip, $18.00. Tickets on sale April 22, 23 and 24 good for return until May 2.

S. B. VANMETER, AGT.

What Printer's Ink Will Do.

Trade can be done on prestige for a while, but it isn't profitable or advantageous to someone on too much. Prestige amounts to a great deal if it is properly taken advantage of in conjunction with advertising. Nothing is so potent a factor in successful advertising as to be able to add it to the prestige that successful business—a oie brings, says Shoe and Leather Price. The consequence is that many old houses when those at the head of them discover that the former prestige no longer proves of sufficient drawing power, wisely inaugurate a campaign of advertising, and thus keep themselves in the front rank. There is nothing harder than to re-

BAD BLOOD, BAD COMPLEXION.

The skin is the seat of an almost endless variety of diseases. They are known by various names, but are all due to the same cause, acid and other poisons in the blood that irritate and interfere with the proper action of the skin.

To have a smooth, soft skin, free from all eruptions, the blood must be kept pure and healthy. The many preparations of arsenic and iodine and the large number of face powders and lotions generally used in this class of diseases cover up for a short time, but cannot remove permanently the ugly blotches and the red, disfiguring pimples.

Eternal vigilance is the price of a beautiful complexion.

When such remedies are relied on, the skin is only temporarily improved. Mr. H. T. Shob, of Lucas Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., says: "My daughter was afflicted for years with a disfiguring eruption on her face, which resisted all treatment. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many remedies were prescribed, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished the eruption began to disappear. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now seventeen years old, and not a sign of the embarrassing disease has ever returned."

S. S. S. is a positive, unfailing cure for the worst forms of skin troubles. It is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and the only one guaranteed purely vegetable.

Bad blood makes bad complexions. It purifies and invigorates the old and makes new, rich blood that nourishes the body and keeps the skin active and healthy and in proper condition to perform its part towards carrying off the impurities from the body.

If you have Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, or your skin is rough and simply send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases and write our physicians about your case. No charge whatever for the service.

SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, ATLANTA, GA.

COOPER SCHOOL HOUSE, KY.

March 4—Mr. Tom James is at the point death of consumption.

Mr. John Daugherty died at the home of his father, at Pincheco, of pneumonia fever.

Mr. Eskat Coleman has pneumonia. The people of this neighborhood will meet at the school house for the purpose of organizing Sunday School the 3d Sunday. Everybody invited.

Miss Annie Blankenship, of Union, spent Sunday with Miss Lilly Stevens.

Misses Elsie Taylor and Bessie Smith, Union, and Mabel Hurley, of Prentiss, spent February the 28th with Miss Orla Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Taylor spent Friday with Mrs. Taylor's mother, of Union.

Miss Susie Taylor was the guest of Mr. Joe Hocker last Thursday.

Mrs. De Hocker, Prentiss, visited her sister, Miss I. P. Coleman, Saturday.

Humors

Come to the surface in the spring as in no other season. It's a pity they don't run themselves all off that way; but in spite of pimples and other eruptions, they mostly remain in the system. That's bad.

Hood's Sarsaparilla removes them and cures all the painful and disfiguring troubles they cause. Nothing else cleanses the system and clears the complexion like Hood's.

To Subscribers.

The price of THE REPUBLICAN in advance is $1.00 on time, $1.25, but for the next thirty days we will settle arrears for $1.00 straight. This will give everyone an opportunity to call and settle. Remember its only thirty days.

To allay pains, reduce inflammation, heal foul ulcers, the most satisfactory results are obtained by using Hood's Snow Liniment. Price, 25 and 50 cents. J. H. Williams, m.

Harbingers of Spring

Already the signs of Spring are upon us, and with them come ideas of Spring wear and Spring purchases in Dry Goods. Many persons took advantage of our Closing-Out Sale of the past few weeks, and the bargains they got they will remember and keep for years to come. As soon as they saw the goods and got the prices on same, they saw it was no catch-penny, fake affair, but a genuine reduction sale, and a quick trade was the result. We still have a few more articles of winter wear left, but they are in the way and we don't want them.

Come and Take Them

At most any old price, just so you remove them to other quarters, for we need the room. It will pay you big to buy these articles and stow them away for next winter. They will be just as seasonable and just as comfortable next fall as if they were brand new. Speaking of Spring, we want to remind our customers that we are going to put in our store the

Biggest and Finest Line

Of Spring and Summer Dry Goods ever seen in Hartford. This is putting it pretty strong, but just watch and see if we don't make our word good. We intend to not only out-do our competitors, but out-do ourselves in past purchases. And we are going to give our wholesale men a little song and dance, too, in regard to "cash" and "prices," so that we may be enabled to undersell a large portion of the merchants of this section in most all lines. But we want to say a few words on

The Subject of Shoes.

Everybody wears shoes and everybody when buying wants good shoes. We sell more shoes than any one line we handle. We do not know why this is, unless people know a good thing when they see it, and simply come back for a re-investment.

But we endeavor to keep all kinds of Dry Goods to please all kinds of people, and we try not to miss a sale. When in need of anything in the Dry Goods line, call on us, and we'll either sell you the goods or make you walk yourself to death hunting for a better and cheaper article.

YOURS FOR TRADE,

R. T. Collins.

*****

Cigar Dealers Like

to have their regular customers smoke

Old Virginia Cheroots

because they know that once a man starts smoking them he is "fixed,"

and that he will have no more trouble with him trying to satisfy him with different kinds of Five Cent cigars.

Three hundred million Old Virginia Cheroots smoked this year. Ask your own dealer. Price, 3 for 5 cents.

*****

DO YOU WANT MACHINERY?

For Threshing Machinery, Saw Mills, Hay Presses, Wind Mills Well Pumps.

(GUARANTEED)

THE BEST

Hay Bale Ties, Coil-wire, Grate Bars, Pipe Fittings, Engine and Boiler Trimmings etc.

Call on

McHenry M'f'g & Mach. Co.,

McHenry, Ky.

NEW Laces and Embroideries!

Have observed their entire line of Spring Laces and Embroideries. Never before was a line in Hartford that could compare with them in beauty and cheapness. Having bought direct from a big New York Lace House, we are better prepared than ever before to give our customers good values. This line includes the dainty patterns in Valenciennes, with insertions to match. Prices ranging from 1c to 20c per yard.

Fifty pieces Nainsook Embroidery from 1 inch to 8 inches wide, with insertion to match, running from 5c to 35c per yard. Twenty-five pieces extra nice quality Swiss Embroidery, with insertion to match, from 1 inch to 5 inches wide, ranging in price from 5c to 30c. Also a nice line of Linen Laces, from 5c to 20c.

Our stocks of India Linens, Nainsooks, Dimities, Marcellines, Percales, &c., are all in, ready for your inspection. A prettier line cannot be found. Do your Spring trading early before the weather gets warm.

We have complete lines of all the staple brands of Bleached Cottons, such as Hope, Mansville, Fruit of Loom, Long Cloth, Lonsdale, Etc., at prices that are sure to interest you.

A Dress Goods Bargain.

A few days ago we picked up six pieces of what we call genuine bargains in all-wool Dress Goods. The width is 50 inches. The quality is all-wool. The wholesale price was $1.00 per yard. We bought them at a special price and are selling them at 50c per yard. Remember it takes only three yards of this goods to make you a skirt.

The New Goods and Cheap Goods are Found only at Hartford's Bargain House:

Hartford Republican.

FRIDAY, MARCH 8

Illinois Central Railroad—Time Table.

North Bound.	South Bound.
No. 101 dep. 6:07 a.m.	No. 102 arr. 11:05 a.m.
No. 103 dep. 8:07 a.m.	No. 104 arr. 1:05 p.m.
No. 105 dep. 10:07 a.m.	No. 106 arr. 3:05 p.m.
No. 107 dep. 12:07 p.m.	No. 108 arr. 5:05 p.m.
No. 109 dep. 2:07 p.m.	No. 110 arr. 7:05 p.m.
No. 111 dep. 4:07 p.m.	No. 112 arr. 9:05 p.m.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR MAGISTRATE.
We are authorized to announce
H. B. Taylor
As a candidate for Magistrate in the Criminal
Magistrate District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

FOR MAGISTRATE.
We are authorized to announce
Glen W. Martin
As a candidate for Magistrate in the Criminal
Magistrate District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

Judge L. P. Little, Owenboro, is in town.

A new lot of Iron Bedsteads at Carson & Co's.

Mr. W. W. Tichenor, Point Pleasant, is quite sick.

A sewing machine for $5 at the Singer Office.

New Shoes for men and ladies at Carson & Co's.

If it is four you want, go to John R. Phipps and get it.

If you want hardware, the place to find it is at John R. Phipps.

Hon. John J. McHenry, Louisville, was in town first of the week.

Mrs. Chas. H. Sturgeon has recovered from an attack of measles.

For SALE—A 50 acre farm 3 miles below Hartford. Apply at this office.

Do you know that Gross Williams will sell you a Sewing Machine from $5.00 up.

Calico sets; Woolen Hose 19c; Woolen Underwear $1.50 per suit at Carson & Co's.

PISO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION

25c

25c

25c

25c

25c

25c

25c

25c

25c

25c

25c

25c

25c

RIGHT UP TO DATE.

(Benson's Plaster is Pain's Master.)

These are days of records and of the breaking of records. Benson's Plaster, for quickness of action and thoroughness of cure, has no record to beat except its own. Benson's Plaster, always the best, always the leader, is today better than ever. It sticks to the skin but never sticks in its tracks. It marches on.

This people not only want to be cured but cured quickly—and Benson's Plaster does it. Coughs, colds, hiccups, asthma, bronchitis, liver and kidney complaints, and other ailments approachable by an external remedy, yield to Benson's Plaster as fast as heat. Neither Belladonna, Strengthening or Capicum plasters are to be compared with Benson's. People who have once tested the merits of Benson's Plaster have no use for any other external remedy.

More than 5,000 physicians and druggists (and a thousand times as many non-professional persons) have called Benson's Plaster one of the few (1) home remedies that can be trusted. Fifty-five highest awards have been made to it in competition with the best known plasters of Europe and America. Better proof of its merits is inconceivable. Be sure to get the genuine. For sale by all druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States, on receipt of 25c. each. Seabury & Johnson, Mfg. Chemists, N.Y.

Mr. G. E. Matlock, Nashville, Tenn., is attending court.

Mrs. S. T. Brown, Centertown, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fon Rogers.

Mr. John Bell, Point Pleasant, is quite sick, but is thought to be some better.

John R. Phipps has everything kept in a first-class hardware store. Give him a call.

Mr. F. M. White, Ceraivo, is dangerously ill of pneumonia and not expected to recover.

Miss Nell Austin, Beaver Dam, is with Carson & Co. again. We are glad to have Miss Nell with us.

Capt. Oscar Bishop, who has been in the Philippines for the past two years, has notified relatives that he will be at home by the first of June.

Last Monday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Fon Rogers were greeted with the presence of a new hostess. Her name is Miss Nora Elta Rogers and will make her abode permanently with them in the future.

Eq. W. I. Rowe has a very painful sore toe. About forty years ago he sustained some injuries which have renewed their annoyances at different times. We learn with regret that he is unable to enjoy his usual activities on the farm on account of this old trouble.

Mr. Geo. W. Martin, of the Select precinct, announces his candidacy for the office of Justice of the Peace in the Cromwell Magisterial District, subject to the will of the Republican party. Mr. Martin is a good substantial citizen and an earnest worker in the party ranks, and if nominated would fill the office to the very best of his ability.

Mr. Stephen R. Williams, Ceraivo, died yesterday morning about 1 o'clock of pneumonia. His remains will be interred at Walton's Creek cemetery at 1 o'clock this forenoon. He was a highly respected Christian gentleman loved and respected by all. His death is quite a loss, not only to the family, but also the community of which he was a member.

Mrs. Wm. Austin, Beaver Dam, died Sunday at her residence of a complication of diseases. She was one of Beaver Dam's oldest and most highly respected citizens. She leaves a devoted companion and one daughter, Mrs. K. V. Williams, to mourn her eternal absence. Her remains were interred in the Beaver Dam cemetery after funeral services by Dr. J. S. Coleman and Rev. Petrie.

Mr. Henry Carson, of the firm of Carson & Co., is in the East purchasing his spring stock.

Mr. J. B. Vickers, who has been very sick with the grip for several weeks is slowly improving.

From now until March 1st, we will sell Calicoes at 4 cents for cash only. CARSON & CO.

Mrs. Sam T. Barnett, of near town, left Wednesday for Hopkins county, where she goes to visit her mother.

Remember we offer some special bargains in Woolen Hose and Underwear from now until March 1st. CARSON & CO.

Ma. John Daugherty, of Cromwell, died last Sunday. The cause of his death was a complication of diseases among which pneumonia played a great part.

LOOK! LOOK!—For the next ten days I will sell second-hand sewing machines from $5 up. Cash. GROSS WILLIAMS, Agent.

Stop at the Commercial Hotel, Hartford, Ky. The best of fare. Rates reasonable. Your patronage solicited. A. J. WILLIAMS, Prop.

Agents wanted at once in each town to handle "Scott's Emulsion." Best seller out Big profits. Address "C." box 31, Centertown, Ky.

If you want to go to school cheap you can rent you in by selling you a scholarship in the West Kentucky Seminary at a discount. Write us or call at our office.

In Dr. Coleman's article of last week on "Woman Preaching" a typographical error was made, when he referred to 2d Corinthians it should have been 1st Corinthians.

Mrs. Scudler Everly, Point Pleasant, died yesterday of bright disease—she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel James. Her remains will be laid to rest to day. We could not learn the location of the burial.

All persons having claims against R. W. Blankenship's estate will file same with me at Beaver Dam, Ky., on or before May 1, 1901, and have them properly proven.

3318 W. B. CHINN, Adm'r.

Rights in governmental affairs nor woman's lawlessness, but if a woman can save a son or ten thousand souls by precept or example and if by preaching more good can be accomplished along this line, I think her Divine Rights are fully sanctioned by Divine authority. Moreover I think it will be more tolerable in the great day for the "Sodom and Gomorrah" than for that city, or that who resists such teachings unduly.

The brother will confer a favor by answering the questions propounded above in the next issue of this paper. Respectfully submitted, this March 4, 1901. BY SCOUT.

Marriages.

Mr. Chas. Baker, Narrows, to Miss Maudie Bewley, Narrows. Date of marriage, Feb. 28.

Mr. Edward Raymond, Cromwell, to Miss Mary Ellen Austin, Cromwell. Date of marriage, March 3.

Mr. R. F. Armendt, Narrows, to Miss Myrtle Jones, Jones. Date of marriage, March 3.

Mr. M. G. Greer, Magan, to Miss Beale Kirk, Magan. Date of marriage, March 3.

Mr. W. D. McHenry, to Miss Iona M. Coleman, Centertown. Date of marriage, March 6.

Yesterday evening while horseback riding in company with Miss Annie Collins, Miss Willie Hocker was thrown and in the fall sustained very painful bruises. The horse was frightened by a dog and ran for some distance at full speed, insuring a corner sharply, the girl fell from the saddle, her foot hanging in the stirrup. The wounds were about the head and face.

Court Notes.

Circuit Court convened Monday with Hon. W. T. Owen on the bench and Hon. J. E. Rowe and M. L. Heavrin representing the Commonwealth. The following gentlemen were empaneled to look after the evil doers, and from what we learn, they are doing quite a business:

L. B. Tichenor, Hubbard Shultz, C. G. Taylor, B. C. Hudson, L. W. Tichenor, A. A. Taylor, Birch Shields, L. Worth Tichenor, H. B. Bennett, A. C. Stevens, Geo. St. Clair, and J. P. Austin, Foreman.

Those composing the petit jury, who meet out justice to the erring classes are all good men, who will give the parties arraigned in court their just dues:

D. B. Bristol, Jacob Bennett, Jno. H. Lloyd, J. W. Cook, Frank Black, S. T. Leach, M. J. Reid, Jas. Wilson, L. B. Loney, F. P. Crowder, A. T. Black, Hardin Minton, J. W. Parks, Nelson Cole, Joe L. Park, Joe Foster, Geo. B. Brown, J. W. Thomas, Seth Riley, S. J. Weller, W. H. Rhoads, T. L. Anderson, W. B. Tichenor, C. K. Reuter.

In the case of the Com'th. vs. Hugh Bangh for house breaking, the jury gave him one year in the penitentiary.

All other cases on docket to those of Com'th. vs. R. T. Taylor, continued or fled away with leave to re-appear.

In the case of the Com'th. vs. R. T. Taylor, for illicit sale of liquor, the jury fined him $100. A second case that went to the jury, resulted in a hung jury.

16x20 Fine Portrait. $1.98
If you need any first class artist work, send Chas. Sturgeon, Hartford, Ky., a tintype or photograph and $1.98, and he will make and send you a fine 16x20 life-size Crayon portrait. Satisfaction guaranteed. 3318

G. A. R. Notice.

At our last regular meeting of the Prestons Mortuary Post, No. 4, it was decided to give notice to neighborhoods that we would have Decoration Services on May 30, 1901. Those who want the services held in their neighborhood should let in their calls to our Post by April 1st.

LOUIS GUNTHER, Q. M.

The Maiden and Wisdom.

A beautiful maiden, who had many admirers, besought Cupid to direct her choice.

The God of love, touched by her beauty, caused her to prefer the most worthy of her lovers. But, when it occurred to her that, after all, her choice might be unwise, she begged wisdom to give her a discernment so keen that she might detect the smallest human imperfection.

"Is it your desire to wed?" asked Wisdom.

"Such is every maiden's wish," she replied.

"Then you know not what you ask. Such discernment is angelic; and, in heaven, there is neither marrying nor giving in marriage," said Wisdom.

"And is there not one perfect man?" cried the maiden.

"Yes: one for every perfect woman," Wisdom replied.

The maiden hung her head and was glad that Love is blind.

We like to divine others, but would not be divine ourselves.

Twice Proven.

[From the Vindicator, Bathurst, N. C.]
The editor of the Vindicator has had the occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts affected and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time.

Second, in rheumatism in high joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Democracy's Champion for the Political Guillotine are Named
---Democrats, Populist and Gold Man.

As last Monday was the first of the month, Circuit Court and Democratic Mass Convention, quite a crowd of visitors were in town. Soon after 1 o'clock the convention was called to order in the court house yard where a large crowd of Democrats and Republicans had gathered, and after a little preliminary work, Mr. John B. Wilson was appointed to pass on the platform, which had previously been prepared, and in its absence, J. E. Rowe was called for, responding in his usual way. After the committee had agreed that the platform would do to make this campaign on, Mr. H. P. Taylor, in his usual good humored manner, mounted the rostrum and read as follows:

The Democrats of Ohio county in mass convention assembled, do now renew their allegiance to the principles of the Democratic party as set forth in the last national platform of their party, and they do now re-affirm the declarations embodied in their party's platform adopted at Chicago last year, and with undiminished confidence in these principles as the basis of organization, it is by this convention resolved.

First.—We approve the action of the County Committee in the call of this convention, and to the nominees of this convention each of us does pledge his earnest and hearty support.

Second.—We endorse the wise conservatism that has characterized the present State administration of Governor Beckham and those with him who are charged with the administration of the State's affairs.

Third.—We especially desire to call the attention of the people of the county to the county's affairs under Democratic county officials for the past three years. When this Democratic administration came into office, they found the county more than $30,000 in debt, and a large part of this debt was bearing interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum. This debt has been by the action of the Democratic officers, reduced by more than $10,000 and refunded into the form of obligations, payable at the option of the county, and bearing only 4 per cent. interest, thus saving to the taxpayers the large yearly interest charge as well as securing to them the limitations and certainty of the amount of their debt as set forth in the obligations. Taxes have been reduced and extravagance has given place to economy in every department of the county's government.

Fourth.—We pledge to the people of this county a continuance of the careful, economical and business like administration of the county's business, if it shall be entrusted to Democratic officials, and when all the offices of the county are in Democratic hands, that the same careful attention to the needs of the people will be given to those now filled by Democrats.

Fifth.—That we favor the calling of a State Convention to meet between the November election and the meeting of the General Assembly to nominate a candidate for the United States Senate. Such nomination to be binding on the members of the General Assembly and upon this convention.

Sixth.—Order of business—Nominating speeches shall be limited to five minutes; Nominations shall be made in the following order: County Judge, County Court Clerk, Sheriff, County Attorney, Superintendent of Schools, Representative, Jailor, Assessor, Surveyor and Coroner.

His reading was frequently punctuated with applause, but when he came to the clause endorsing Beckham's administration, that $100,000 of blood money, and that $100,000 for the standing army to guard office criminals and the pardoning of Ed Alvey, the notorious Louisville gambler, Sinsler and Miles, a deathlike silence and a look of disapproval reigned throughout the crowd. Not one word of manifestation of approval could be heard anywhere. However, when the "bosses" called for the adoption of the loosely constructed declaration, an affirmative vote was given and it became part of Democratic history, which THE REPUBLICAN will "air" at the opportune time.

When the chair announced that he would entertain motions for candidates it became a visible fact that the "clique" had its men slated and they were run through on short notice, until it came to Jailor, when they made a pretense at giving others a show. The ticket selected for the political guillotine, which drops November 5, is here given.

For County Judge—J. P. Miller.

For County Court Clerk—T. J. Smith.

For Sheriff—Thos. E. Butler.

For County Attorney—R. E. Lee Simmerman.

For School Superintendent—L. W. Goadey.

For Representative—M. J. Cox.

For Jailor—Frank Wade.

For Assessor—Jas. C. Bennett.

For Surveyor—Jas. L. Brown.

For Coroner—Edward L. Boswell.

BEAVER DAM, KY.

Mar. 4.—I notice in your paper an article from a divine condemning a woman for preaching.

If Mrs. Wooley is correct why she is preaching, I think she was surely called to preach. If there was ever any called to preach. If the Lord called her to preach who can say no. The Doctor referred you to 1st Cor. 14 ch. 34. Paul's letter to the Corinthians, saying it was a shame for women to speak in public. The Corinthians at that time were trying to live under Rabbinical law, that the Greeks were living under and practicing. The Corinthians, you'll see, were contentious about some of their rules, which you'll see by reading the 11th ch. 4:5 1st Cor. They thought that the woman should be veiled. If they prayed or preached, some of them thought that it would be best for the women at Corinth to do like the women of Greece for fear it would create more strife in the churches.

I think it more than folly to think that we should follow the Greeks or Corinthians in this enlightened day. Look at the good Mrs. Wooley as demolished at Hartford and Beaver Dam. I say if women can do so much good, we had better start out more to preach the Gospel of God. We can't do much good for the Savior. Let the good work go on.

Yours respectfully,
GEO. E. MITCHELL

Have you a cough? A dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will relieve it. Price, 25 cents and 50 cents J. H. Williams.

Notice.

There will be a mass meeting of the citizens of Hartford held at the court house Friday evening, March 8th, 1901, for the purpose of considering the building of an addition to the college. All citizens and patrons interested in our school are requested to be present.

Respectfully,
J. S. GLENN, Ch'm'n.

D. M. HOCKER, Sec'y.

Board of trustees of Hartford College.

You should not feel tired all the time—healthy people don't—you won't if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla for a while.

How Are Your Kidneys?
Dr. H. B. Williams, 1111 Broadway, New York City, is the only one who can tell you.

SMALLHOUSE, KY.

Mr. Jesse Hill and Miss Ollie Maddox were married February 24th, at Evansville, and returned home Tuesday; they were accompanied by Miss Ollie Maddox the bride's sister and Mr. Louis Fulkerson. The boys of the neighborhood treated them to a nice serenade and a big charivari Tuesday night.

Born, to the wife of Mr. Joe Bullcock, February 25th, a girl.

The farmers are busy making plant beds breaking ground and sowing oats.

Mr. Jesse Drake who has been quite ill for sometime is able to be up most of the time but has to go on crutches.

Mrs. Jennie Ball is still quite sick.

Mrs. Clark Iglehart is also quite sick at this writing.

Mrs. Tine Lee Withrow, Central City, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Faule Bullock, wife of James Bullock, deceased, has moved to Centertown.

Dr. A. C. Drake, Central City, is in our midst making teeth.

Miss Oma Maddox, who is attending school at Beaver Dam, is visiting her parents this week.

Messrs. Wayne and Lee Overhuls have a new guitar and violin and Mr. Owen Hunter a new accordion.

Miss Lela Hunter spent the day, Wednesday, with her cousin, Lucy Nichols, who is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Barnard.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL

WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME & SODA

will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from one fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.

For Sale by all druggists.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

REASONS FOR PARDONING ALVEY.

"This is the most bare-faced and inexcusable case of judicial and political persecution that ever came before my notice. By a bold and shameful conspiracy, this man has been selected as the helpless victim, while others equally as guilty, or more so, who seem to bask in the sunshine of official favor, are allowed absolute immunity from prosecution in the Jefferson Criminal Court. Has the prosecution been animated by an earnest and honest desire to stamp out all gambling in the city of Louisville? If so, then they would have met with the hearty co-operation of the chief executive in their efforts, and I stand ready now, whenever and wherever it may be in my power to aid the officers of the law, where they are honest in seeking to enforce the laws against gambling, without partiality or favor to any one."

"Has such been the case in the recent indictments and trials in Louisville? The record before me and the information I have received certainly do not show it. Why is it that indictments have not been returned against the most notorious gamblers in the city? And why is it that indictments against others have been dismissed under a corrupt bargain that they be given immunity, if they would give evidence against this man and one Miles? Is Alvey made the particular vengeance because he had become a dangerous rival in the business to some others?"

"Gambling is a crime, punishable by severe penalties under our statutes and it ought to be stamped out, if possible, by a rigid and impartial enforcement of the law. I would gladly see the city of Louisville freed from this vice, but if it is allowed at all, then I say it would be preferable under the principles of competition rather than monopoly."

"This warfare seems to have been inspired, not by an intention to suppress gambling, but by a desire to destroy competition in that business. The papers before me show, beyond a doubt, that this man was convicted upon evidence secured by one of the most infamous bargains ever tolerated in any court. 'One of the employed prosecutors, who has been conspicuous in his professed advocacy of honest election,' and has been Peter the Hermit in this one-eyed crusade against the gambling vice, negotiated the deal, claimed to set with the sanction and approval of the court."

"By this agreement, which, by the proceedings in court yesterday, seem to be fully carried out—these men were dismissed from the charges against them, and by their testimony a verdict was secured against Alvey, who, either by reason of his competitive qualities or his political affiliations, seems to have incurred the special hatred and animosity of the prosecution."

"I have filed before me, in what I am assured is the handwriting of the Prosecuting Attorney before referred to, affidavits which he prepared for these men to sign after the agreement was made. I copy the first paragraph:

State of Kentucky, ss.—Jefferson County: The affiant, Logan Schwaner, says this affidavit is made of his own free will and accord without solicitation of any one. He says he has been promised no reward of immunity from punishment or trial under the indictment pending against him in the Jefferson Circuit Court."

"If this handwriting is genuine, as I believe it is, then he sought to make these men swear to what he and they knew to be false. Gambling is bad enough, but perjury and subornation or perjury is worse, and it is startling that such methods should be resorted to for the conviction of any one."

"I, therefore, as a rebuke to the character of such prosecution, and not as a condonation to the offense of gambling, grant this pardon to Alvey, upon the assurance from that he will not again violate the law."

J. C. W. BECKHAM, Governor."

"A Gentle Wind of Western Birth"

Tells no sweeter story to humanity than the announcement that the health-giver and health-bringer, Hood's Sarsaparilla, tells of the birth of an era of good health. It is the one reliable specific for the cure of all blood, stomach and liver troubles.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Never Disappoints

JURY TRIALS.

Ohio Circuit Court, March Term, 19

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 27 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

are go to your merchant
YOUR MONEY BACK.
d to him. Price 50 cts.
MANSFIELD DRUG CO.,
MEMPHIS, TENN.